From Saturday April 9. to Tuesday April 12. 1743.

Petersbourg, March 15.

A few Days ago arrived here, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King and Republick of Poland, Count Oginski. His Retinue conſiſts of above forty Perſons, ſeveral of them Poliſh Gentlemen. According to the Cuſtom between the two Crowns, his Expences are to be defrayed by her Imperial Majeſty during his Reſidence at this Court. On Saturday laſt, by an Ukaas or Edict, ſigned by her Imperial Majeſty, ſeveral foreign Merchants, who had been in Cuſtody about ſix Weeks, on account of running of Goods, were ſentenced to pay a Fine of double Duties for the Goods which they had reſpectively run, and thereupon to be diſcharged out of Cuſtody, and from all farther Proſecution for the ſaid Offence. Some of them have already paid their Fines, and been diſcharged accordingly.

Petersbourg, March 19. By Advices lately arrived from the Perſian Frontiers we are informed, that the Inhabitants of Dagiſtan, and the adjoining Countries, have, in the moſt earneſt Manner, renewed their Requeſt to be received under the Protection of her Imperial Majeſty; declaring, that they are reſolved to come under the Juriſdiction of no other Power; that they are always ready to take the Oath of Allegiance to the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and deſirous to become her moſt faithful Subjects.

Stockholm, March, 22. O. S. There was a Plenum on Friday laſt, when the Buſineſs of the Succeſſion was the Subject of their Deliberations; the Debates were very warm, and laſted till late in the Evening; at laſt the Queſtion being put, whether the Election ſhould be deferred, or be proceeded on immediately, the Houſe divided, and by a Majority of ſixty five it was reſolved to put off that Affair till they were better informed of the Conditions of Peace which they might expect from Ruſſia. Twelve hundred Men were embarked Yeſterday for the Iſland of Aland, which Reſolution being taken ſuddenly and very ſecretly, 'tis thought they will ſurprize the Muſcovites, who have not above one hundred and fifty Men there. Two Men of War and four Frigates convoy the Tranſports.

Stockholm, March 29. Yeſterday arrived here an Expreſs, with an Account, that the Detachment lately ſent from hence was ſafely arrived at the Iſland of Aland, and that about 150 Muſcovites, who were there, had taken to their Boats on the firſt Appearance of the Swedes, who were in purſuit of them.

Florence, March 26. From Lombardy we are informed, that by the laſt Courier from Spain, M. de Gages has been honour'd with the Title of Grandee of Spain of the firſt Claſs, and Captain General of the Army in the Eccleſiaſtical State. The King of Naples has alſo preſented him with the Order of St. Gennaro, and a Penſion of 4000 Ducats per Annum. M. de Gages has lately ſummon'd to Bologna all the Spaniſh Troops both Horſe and Foot, that for Convenience of Forage were at Imola, Faenza, &c. On the 20th a Party of Spaniſh Priſoners of War from Piacenza, Parma and Modena, were exchanged with an equal Number of Auſtrian and Sardinian Priſoners from the Spaniſh Camp at Bologna. Marſhal Traun continues in his Head Quarters at Carpi: He has poſted large Parties of Auſtrian Horſe to Crevalcore, St. Giovanni, St. Agata, Cento, and other Places in the Ferrareſe, 'tis thought, with a Deſign to cut off the Communication of the Spaniards with that State. On the 21ſt at Night, Count Guaranta Ercolani, a Bologneſe Nobleman, Chamberlain to the Queen of Hungary, was attacked and beat by unknown Perſons, in the Yard of the Palace of the Nobleman Caſali, who that Evening kept an Aſſembly, which is ſuſpected to have been done in Revenge for his having previouſly acquainted Marſhal Traun, by his Running Footman, of the Motions of the Spaniards when they marched from Bologna, before the Engagement of Campo Santo. The Gates of Bologna were then ſhut to prevent any Notice being ſent, but that Gentleman made his Servant get over the Walls of the Town. Laſt Week a Perſon from Bologna

Bologna arrived here, with a Commiſſion to treat for 6000 Regimentals for the Spaniſh Troops, who are in great Want thereof, but not being able to get the Commiſſion executed here, went on with it to Leghorn.

Florence, April 2. A Courier is arrived from Marſhal Traun, to acquaint General Braitwitz, that the Spaniards decamped from Bologna on the 26th, and were marched towards the Romagna. In the Evening of the 28th, General Novatti arrived at Bologna with Detachments out of the Regiments of Dieſpach and Teutſchmaiſter, ſome Huſſars, and thoſe called Partiſans; which Troops ſet out again the next Morning in purſuit of the Spaniards to harraſs them in their Retreat, and to favour the Deſertion, which, at their leaving Bologna and ſince, has been very conſiderable. By the Account which arrived Yeſterday Morning, M. de Gages was got as far as Forli; the Rear Guard was at Caſtle Bologneſe, commanded by the Duke d'Atriſco: It is believed that they will at preſent march to Rimini, or to a Place called Catolica, a Poſt from thence, where they may ſtay ſome Time; but as all the Sick and Wounded are arrived at Macerata near Loretto, the reſt of the Army will probably follow them, either to fix there, or at Foligno. Marſhal Traun had notified the Arrival of his Troops to the Senate of Bologna, demanding every thing that was neceſſary for their Subſiſtance, and a Loan of 20000 Piſtoles. The Magiſtrates of that Place have made Remonſtrances to him to ſhew the Impoſſibility the Legation was under to comply with this Demand, of which an Account was ſent by an Expreſs to the Pope.

Vienna, March 22, N. S. We hear from the Upper Palatinate, that the French having attempted to throw fifteen hundred Men into Egra, General Feſtetitz, who commands the Blockade of that Place, had attacked that Party, and obliged them to retire with Loſs.

Vienna, April 3. N. S. Count Dohna, the Pruſſian Miniſter, who went to meet the King at Neiſſe, is expected back this Day. Philibert's and Althain's Horſe are advanced in the Archbiſhoprick of Saltzburg, to diſlodge the Enemy at Neumarck. All the Army is in Motion to advance gradually into Bavaria, but four Days ago there fell ſo much Snow, that it is almoſt impoſſible to make any great Progreſs. We are adviſed on all Hands, and from all Quarters, that the French are in a moſt diſtreſſed Condition, their whole Army, with Seckendorf's Peaſants, do not form above 24 or 25000 Men. Prince Charles ſets out in ſix or eight Days, and will go towards Egra.

Vienna, April 6, N. S. The two Regiments of Horſe which have marched into Saltzburg, are followed by ſome Infantry. We hear that the Duke of Modena is to have the Command of the Spaniſh Army in Italy. This Court is to have 3000 Griſons in Pay. The Dragoons of Savoy and Cohari being quartered in the Ferrareſe, the Nuncio here has received two Expreſſes to complain of it.

Ratisbon, April 1, N. S. No Perſon is at preſent ſuffered to paſs either into the Auſtrian or French Army, without being very rigorouſly examined. The French are employed in compleating the Lines which they began laſt Year, and in covering their advanced Works with Paliſadoes. They receive daily large Quantities of Forage from Ingolſtadt at Stadt-am-Hoff, and have raiſed ſeveral ſmall Batteries upon Mount Trinity to cover the Town.

Tongres, April 9. N. S. The Hanoverian Train of Artillery, which was lodged this Winter at Antwerp, arrived here this Morning by way of Louvain and St. Tron, and will proceed To-morrow towards Ruremonde, where it will paſs the Maeze.

Duſſeldorp, April 10, N. S. The Hanoverian Troops continue to paſs the Rhine at Mulheim, and the Engliſh and Auſtrian Troops are in full march to paſs that River at Andernach.

Aix la Chapelle, April 15. The Earl of Stair's Baggage is ſent forward to Cologne; and his Excellency will leave this Place immediately after the Arrival of General Clayton, who is arrived at Oſtend, and expected here in two Days. All the Engliſh, Hanoverian and Auſtrian Troops are in full March for the Rhine.

Hambourgh, April 12. M. de Natzmer, a Colonel in the Saxon Service, was on the 9th Inſtant choſen Commandant of this Town, in the Room of General Steynflicht. Her Czariſh Majeſty has conferred the Order of St. Catharine upon the Dutcheſs of Holſtein, Dowager of the late Adminiſtrator.

Hague, April 19. N. S. Wedneſday laſt Mr. Trevor, together with Count Golowkin, communicated to the States General the Treaty lately concluded and ratified between his Majeſty and the Court of Ruſſia; and at the ſame Time invited their High Mightineſſes to accede to it, whereupon whereupon the States took a Reſolution that very Day to diſpatch the above Treaty to the reſpective Provinces, for their ſending in their Sentiments upon it to the Aſſembly as ſoon as poſſible. M. Byncker-ſhoek, Preſident of the High Council of Juſtice of Holland, Zealand and Weſt-friſeland, a Man very learned in the Law, died here the 16th Inſtant in the Morning. This Preſidentſhip is in the Gift of the States of Holland, and thoſe of Zealand, by Turns; and is now to be diſpoſed of by thoſe of Holland. M. St. Gil ſhews about a Letter from M. Mari at Venice, of the 5th Inſtant, with an Account of a Detachment of 2000 Auſtrians, ſent by Marſhal Traun to harraſs the Spaniards in their Retreat towards Rimini, having been ſurrounded and entirely cut to Pieces by the latter; but neither the Day nor Place is named.
